PREFACE.

PREVIOUS to presenting the First Series of Instructions in Crochet to the public, I conceived the idea of carrying the art to greater perfection than had been hitherto attained. How far I have succeeded, must be left to the unbiassed judgment of my numerous friends and patronesses. The Illustrated Instructions, and the variety of patterns given in the First Series of THE CROCHET BOOK, are a necessary and preliminary course (combined with the new instructions in this Series), to assist the learner, or even the proficient, in acquiring a readier knowledge of the mode of working the improved designs in the present production. Flowers and Leaves in Crochet, were studies which I found comparatively easy in their separate forms; but to combine them with effect in one design, with concise and simple directions, was a task of great difficulty, labour, and time. This, and the care that has been bestowed in perfecting the engravings, will fully account for the delay of the work, since its announcement in June last.

Encouraged in my endeavours to forward this delightful accomplishment by the approbation and flattering testimonials my works have received, I beg respectfully to intimate that a Third Series of New Patterns are in course of preparation.

Instructions and Directions in Lacet, Crochet, Embroidery, Point and Lacework, Knitting, Netting, Tambour, &c.

Ladies experiencing any difficulty in the following Directions may communicate personally, or by letter.

CROCHET.

INSTRUCTION, AND EXPLANATION OF TERMS.

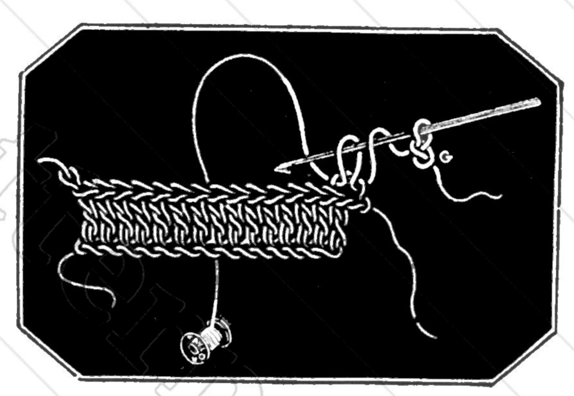

SINGLE CROCHET, OR SHEPHERD'S KNITTING.

AFTER making a chain, the loop E being on the needle, put the needle in a stitch as F, draw the thread through, forming a loop, and also through the loop on the needle E. This stitch is only used in the following direction at the end of a round, to prevent the stitches from appearing higher than those at the commencement of the round; also in rows, to bring the thread to another part of the work without the stitches being perceived.

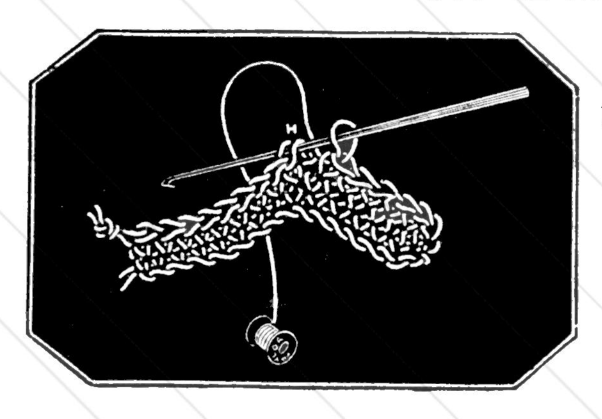

CONTENTS.

TO COMMENCE AND END A ROW IN TREBLE CROCHET.

Work a chain stitch as G, leaving an end of the thread about 2 inches; turn the thread round the needle, and then putting the needle into the 1st stitch of the work, finish the treble stitch; end the row as in plain crochet.

DOUBLE CROCHET,

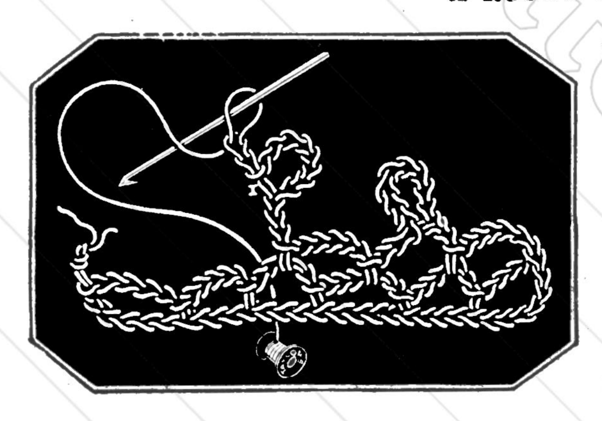

Is a variation of plain crochet; and formed by taking up both sides of the stitch in the previous row on the needle as H, instead of the usual method of putting it in the stitch; this makes the work stronger, and is suited for fine thread.

TO COMMENCE AND END A ROW IN PLAIN CROCHET.

When the thread is cut off, work a chain stitch, leaving an end about 2 inches; put the needle into the 1st stitch of the work, and finish the plain stitch. At the end of the row, work a chain stitch, cut off the thread, leaving about 2 inches, and draw it through to fasten it; when the work is finished, knot every 2 ends of the thread together, and cut them close.

A ROUND LOOP.

Make a chain of 11 stitches or more according to the direction; put the needle back into the 3d stitch of the 11 chain, and work a plain stitch in it as I, leaving the 1st 2 chain stitches of the 11 chain; then work 2 chain to correspond with the other side. This round loop is varied in the direction, in size and position, according to the pattern.

TO WORK BACKWARDS AND FORWARDS.

After working the required number of foundation stitches, for plain crochet, work 1 chain stitch, and commence the direction in the 2d stitch, leaving the 1 chain stitch to turn the corner. For treble crochet, work 2 chain stitches, and commence in the 3d stitch. This rule should be observed at the commencement of every row

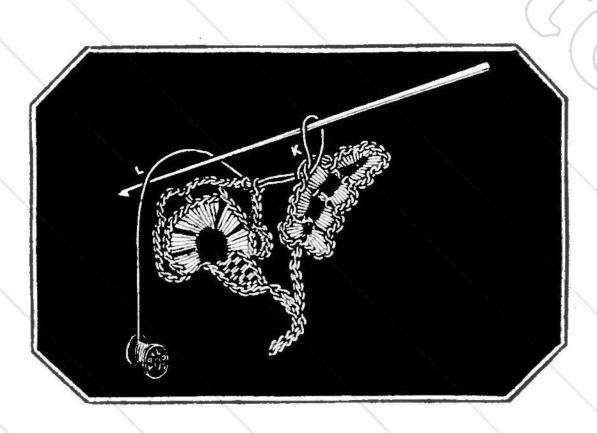

TO TURN BACK,

Is to turn the work on the contrary side of the stitches last worked.

TO TURN,

Is to place the work so as to crochet on the opposite side of the stitches or chain last worked, still keeping the work on the right side.

TO JOIN FLOWERS AND LEAVES TOGETHER.

Work 1 chain stitch, take the needle out of the loop, insert the needle in the stitch marked in italics in the direction; then put the needle in the loop as K, and draw the loop through the stitch, and work 1 chain as L.

NOTE.—To make a chain. Plain stitch, treble stitch, miss a stitch. To work in the chain * and a parenthesis ( ) see First Series of the CROCHET BOOK.

COLLAR—LA REINE DES FLEURS.

COLLAR.—LA REINE DES FLEURS.

Taylor's Crochet Thread, No. 12, or Fine Black Netting Silk; Needle No. 24, Bell Gauge. The plain and treble stitches are to be worked in double crochet, except when they are worked in the chain. "To join the flowers and leaves together" round loop, "to turn" and to "turn back," see "Instructions." Commence by working a leaf, thus :—

1st Flower.—22 chain, put the needle into the 12th stitch of these 22 chain and work a plain stitch in it to form a round loop; then for the calyx, 5 treble, 2 plain, turn, leaving 5 chain for the stem; then work 1 chain to cross the stem; and in the same stitches as those on the other side, 2 plain, 5 treble, 1 plain; then work in the round loop (3 plain and 5 chain 5 times) 2 plain and 1 plain on the 1st plain stitch of the calyx, 3 chain, and turning the flower on the wrong side, join it to the 2d 5 treble of the leaf; then on the flower work (1 chain, miss 3, and 5 treble in the 5 chain 5 times) miss 2, 1 plain, and down the calyx work 9 single stitches, and commence the

2d Flower.—22 chain, put the needle into the 11th stitch and work 1 plain stitch in it to form a round loop; for the calyx, 5 treble, 2 plain, turn, leaving 3 chain stitches for the stem, and work 1 chain to cross it, 2 plain, 5 treble, 1 plain on the same stitches as those on the other side; then in the round loop (3 plain and 5 chain 7 times) 2 plain, and 1 plain on the 1st plain stitch of the calyx, turn back, (1 chain, miss 3, and 5 treble in the 5 chain 7 times) miss 1, 1 plain, turn back, (7 chain miss 5, and 1 plain in the 1 chain 7 times) turn back, miss 1, 3 plain in the 7 chain, join it to the last 1 chain of the 1st flower; then on the 2d flower, 4 plain in the same 7 chain as the 3 plain, then (miss 1, and 7 plain in the 7 chain 6 times), miss 1, and down the calyx, 1 plain, 5 treble, 2 plain as before; then on the stem, 4 plain, and work the

2d Leaf.—15 chain, turn, 1 plain in the 4th chain stitch, 2 chain miss 2, 1 treble, 2 chain, miss 2, 1 treble, 2 chain, miss 2, 1 plain, turn, leaving 2 chain for the stem, work 1 chain to cross it, (miss 1, 5 treble, and 1 plain in the 2 chain twice), join to the 2d flower by working in the centre stitch of the 7 plain, then miss 1, (5 treble and 1 plain in the 2 chain as before twice), turn so as to work on the other side, (miss 1, 5 treble and 1 plain 3 times in the 2 chain as before), then 2 plain on the stem, and 4 plain on the stem of the 1st flower, 10 chain, turn back, 9 plain on the 10 chain, and leaving them for the stem, work the

3d Flower.—19 chain, 1 plain in the 10th stitch to form a round loop; then for the calyx, 5 treble, 2 plain, turn, leaving 2 stitches for the stem, work 1 chain to cross it, then 2 plain, 5 treble, 1 plain in the same stitches as those on the other side, and in the round loop (3 plain; and 5 chain 5 times), 2 plain, and 1 plain on the calyx, 3 chain, turn back, and join it to 2d 5 treble of the 2d leaf; then (1 chain miss 3, and 5 treble in the 5 chain, 5 times), then join to the stem by working 1 plain stitch on the 1st stitch of the 9 plain left for the stem, turn back, and work 15 single stitches on the wrong side of the flower, which will bring the thread to the centre of it.

This finishes the 1st pattern, and is not repeated, as a leaf is omitted between the 1st and 2d flowers to shape the side of the collar, and as the next pattern must necessarily join to the 1st pattern, the direction is slightly varied, although the shape and position of the leaves and flowers remain the same.
